Great Britain :- Hanking 1842, Tientain, by common sense. The remarks made by this goutleman at the meeting of the China Fire Insurance Company on Wednesday will therefore create the more surprise coming from such a source. Mr. TATLOR was wrong both in his facts and his arguments. He asked on what principle newspaper reporters were admitted to meetings of shareholders in a public company and said such a thing would not be tolerated in the city of London, where if important Companies wish-Japan, 1876, Japan Supplementary, United ed their proceedings reported they had to pay for it as an advertisement. As a matter of fact all reputable public companies whose shares are dealt in on the open market throw their meetings open to the press.
